

1st CONTINENTAL SYMPOSIUM ON HONEY PRODUCTION, BEE HEALTH & POLLINATION SERVICES IN AFRICA

2ND ANNOUNCEMENT

Theme: The future of African bee

Sub themes

- ◇ Conducive and enabling environment, apiculture institutional and regulatory frameworks;
- ◇ Bee health and bee diseases;
- ◇ Access to market of honeybee and hives products;
- ◇ Impact of environmental stressors on bees;
- ◇ Pollination industry in Africa;
- ◇ Beekeeping technology transfer.

Date

6th to 8th September 2015

Venue

CAIRO, EGYPT

The African Union through its technical arm (AU-IBAR) with a mandate to support and coordinate the utilization of animals as a resource for human wellbeing in the Members State of the African Union is organizing the 1st symposium on honey production, bee health and pollination services in Africa from 6th to 8th September 2015 in Cairo, Egypt.

The topic: The future of bees in Africa.

The symposium will be a platform of exchange between researchers and policy makers on news advances and research development, identify key issues and priority actions in research and technology transfer to improve the contribution of bees to the world food and nutritional security goals, poverty reduction, equitable and sustainable economic growth on the continent in relation to the Malabo Declaration on growth and acceleration and transformation of African agriculture for shared prosperity and better living conditions.

Conference languages: English, French and Arabic.

REGISTRATION

The registration form (Microsoft Word file) is available for download from the AU-IBAR website: www.au-ibar.org

Symposium Contact:

Director AU-IBAR
 Kenindia Business Park, Museum Hills, Weslands Road
 P.O Box 30786-00100 Nairobi
 Fax: +254 (20) 3674341/2
 Tel.: +254 (20) 3674 000 or +254 (20) 3674 224 or +254 (20) 3674 229
 E-mail: beesymposium@au-ibar.org

Partner organization:

European Union; icipe; OIE; FAO; EISMV

icipe

African Insect Science for Food and Health

